

Jumping Clinic with Sally Sainsbury

June 3, 2017

Glen Oro Farm presents a one day jumping clinic with Sally Sainsbury. Clinic is limited to 5 groups of 4 riders. All levels welcome. Lunch will be provided for riders. Cost is $135 + HST = $152.55.

Sally grew up showing jumpers as a junior and went on to manage, and work as assistant trainer at Jokers Hill with John Weir. Later she operated a large hunter/ jumper barn of her own, before training on a freelance basis. At this point eventing riders became the focal point of her training, with a show jumping specialty. Having acquired her recorded status in course design, Sally now designs show jumping courses at numerous Ontario events.

This clinic will offer insight into correct and balanced riding, along with understanding what the course designer is asking , and therefore how to negotiate courses successfully.

Parking for the clinic will be in warm up area for dressage and cross country (there will be a sign posted)
